Project Information

City of Adelaide (CoA) would like your feedback on an application for a City Works Permit from Giocon Australia Pty Ltd for:

The full road closure of Rose Street between Gray Street and Newmarket Street from 7.00am Monday 9 September 2024 to 7.00pm Monday 30 June 2025 to allow for a loading bay / compound area to facilitate the construction of a 9-level building. In the event of unforeseen circumstances, the end date may be subject to an extension, with prior notification provided before an extension is granted.

Feedback must be submitted by 5:00pm, Friday 30 August 2024. Responsibility for the consideration of submissions is delegated to the Customer Experience team by Council. Feedback received after the closing date will be considered at Council's discretion.

Background

Under Section 223 of The Local Government Act (SA)1999, CoA has a legislative requirement to consult the public if it proposes to grant an authorisation or permit (following receipt of an application for a City Works Permit) for works 'that would result in any part of a road being fenced, enclosed or partitioned so as to impede the passage of traffic to a material degree'.

Further information on the City Works permit application and a detailed traffic management plan are attached to this pack, and are available on the Our Adelaide website (<https://ouradelaide.sa.gov.au>).

Please visit <https://www.cityofadelaide.com.au/business/permits-licences/city-works/> page for more information on City Works Permits.
