We have identified four themes in the draft Integrated Transport Strategy:

- Movement & Access
- Experience & Place
- Health & Sustainability
- Safety & Comfort

We introduce these themes and seek your feedback on our goals and commitments.

- Our goals: these are the big-picture outcomes the strategy is aiming to achieve.
- Our commitments: these are the measures of success. to evaluate our Strategy implementation.

To what extent do you agree with our goals for Movement and Access?

Movement & Access: Creating inclusive, people-friendly streets, and enabling more people to use active travel and public transport.

Our goals:

07. Goal 1.1: Healthy streets to enable everyone to move. Required

Enable people of all ages and abilities to participate in city life and move around the city.

Do you agree with our goals and commitments for Health & Sustainability?

Our goals:

Healthy Streets Approach

Our streets play a big role in our health and wellbeing. Too many cars lead to pollution, noise, safety risks, and barriers that make it harder for people to move around. Walking/wheeling, cycling and using public transport help people stay active and connected, improving both individual health and community life.

The Healthy Streets approach makes streets safer, more welcoming, and easier for everyone to use. By reducing congestion and supporting active travel, it helps create cleaner, greener, and more inclusive places. It focuses on what people need to move around easily—especially those who are most vulnerable—so that everyone can access services, visit friends, and enjoy their city.

Healthy streets and healthy people in a climate resilient city. Cool, calm and connected streets and paths.

19. Goal 3.1: Cool, calm and connected streets and paths. Required

Enhance greening on city streets to make our city more resilient to the impacts of climate change while creating opportunities for people to walk / wheel and cycle through better connections along our streets to our Park Lands and Squares.

Do you agree with our goals and commitments for Safety & Comfort?

Our goals:

Safe System Approach

Creating safe streets for everyone is a priority. The Safe System approach recognises that people make mistakes, and roads should be designed to prevent these mistakes from causing serious harm.

This means setting safer speed limits, improving crossings, and designing streets that protect people, especially those walking/wheeling and cycling.

Road safety is a shared responsibility, but governments and road designers have the biggest role in making roads and speeds safer. When roads are built with safety in mind and have Safe System speeds, crashes are less likely—and when they do happen, they cause less harm.

Safety & Comfort: A proactive safety approach for safer, greener, quieter, cleaner streets for all.

23. Goal 4.1 Implement the Safe System approach Required

Create safer roads and safer speeds to reduce the number of people being killed and seriously injured on our streets.
