Project Information

We would like your feedback on the landscape design of the area between the new Adelaide Aquatic Centre and Barton Terrace West.

The State Government's new Adelaide Aquatic Centre project is on track for completion this summer in Adelaide's Northern Park Lands at Pardipardinyilla / Denise Norton Park (Park 2).

The city of Adelaide is inviting feedback on the Adelaide Park Lands interface along Barton Terrace West.

Background

- The tree planting is funded under the Aquatic Centre Construction budget agreed between the South Australian Government and the City of Adelaide.
- The scope of the works is for new tree planting to complement the State Government's landscaping as a part of the new Aquatic Centre.
- The City of Adelaide is looking to undertake additional tree planting in April - May 2026.
- The Department for Infrastructure and Transport (DIT) provided multiple opportunities in early and late 2022 for the community to provide feedback during the site selection and concept design phases of the project to ensure community needs and expectations were considered in the final design.
- Ongoing project updates have been provided via the Aquatic Centre webpage: https://www.dit.sa.gov.au/infrastructure/projects/adelaide-aquatic-centre/news
