Miscellaneous Amendment By-law 2025

Project Information

The City of Adelaide (CoA) is committed to ensuring our By-laws reflect the needs and expectations of our community.

Background

On 27 August 2024, Council endorsed revised By-laws for the City of Adelaide. This followed public consultation on all draft By-laws, which occurred from 4 July 2024 to 25 July 2024. Revised By-laws became effective 5 January 2025, and can be viewed at https://www.cityofadelaide.com.au/business/permits-licences/city-of-adelaide-by-laws/

Following subsequent feedback from Legislative Review Committee, three relatively minor amendments are now proposed. The amendments do not materially alter the intent of the By-laws, however they provide greater clarity and are intended to avoid any confusion.

In summary, the amendments include:

- Moveable Signs By-Law 2024, By-law No. 2: Ensuring that any consideration by an Authorised Officer relating to a Moveable Sign is 'reasonably' objective
- Local Government Land By-Law 2024, By-law No. 3:
    - Tightening up references to ensure operators given permission to use forklifts in the Central Market have the required licenses
    - Correcting cross referencing of a certain section in the By-law.

We are seeking public input on the proposed amendments, which are proposed to be enacted via the draft Miscellaneous Amendment By-law 2025, City of Adelaide By-law No. 10.

Please note as broader public consultation occurred on all By-laws in July 2024, at this time we are only seeking feedback on the three specific components mentioned in the draft Miscellaneous Amendment By-law 2025, City of Adelaide By-law No. 10.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is a By-law?

One of the main tasks of local government is to regulate or manage services and activities on our roads and public spaces. For example, councils are responsible for managing activities in our Park Lands, streets and footpaths and for providing other services. These services would be difficult for a state government to manage because they are local issues. To support service provision, State Government provides councils the capacity to make By-laws on specific matters.

Why is City of Adelaide introducing an amendment By-law?

Following feedback from Legislative Review Committee, three relatively minor amendments are now proposed. The amendments do not materially alter the intent of the By-laws, however they provide greater clarity and are intended to avoid any confusion.
